MARCH 17

IT MAY BE COLD NOW, BUT...

START-UP SEASON SOON

Although the weather doesn't look like it will be amicable for enjoying your pond in the next week or so, it won't be long before it is! Give us a call or stop by the show room to get your name on the start-ups list - it tends to fill up quickly!

Last week, we cleaned out the water feature at the Muttart Conservatory in the Temperate Pyramid, which we built in 2019. While the weather is chilly, consider stopping in at the Muttart to enjoy the tranquil sounds of water cascading through the streams and watching the Koi play in their pond.

Or, if the Enjoy Center in St. Albert is closer to home for you, we have a pondless feature that is now back up and running.

COMMERCIAL PROJECTS

VISIT WATER FEATURES AT THE MUTTART AND ENJOY CENTER

We have worked with numerous commercial and community clients, making our water features accessible for many to enjoy. This upcoming week we will be preparing for the Edmonton Home and Garden Show—running from March 23-26—and would be happy to discuss with potential commercial clients!
